

2015 LINCOLN MKZ INDULGENCE

Delivering a rich, sumptuous environment inspired by the allure of luxurious chocolate, the Lincoln Black Label Indulgence theme wraps passengers in the supple comfort of warm dark-brown premium materials.

Indulgence is defined by Truffle-colored Venetian leather seating surfaces and armrests. This Lincoln-exclusive material was created especially for Black Label vehicles. Ganache-colored Alcantara® – a luxurious material preferred in upscale interior design, fashion and aviation – extends the richness to the headliner, pillars and package tray, as well as to the side panels of the center console.

Seat leather wears an elegant Linking-L perforation pattern with black accent stitching (see below). Thicker, upgraded Ganache-colored floor mats are highlighted by Ganache-colored Alcantara edging and a Lincoln Black Label insignia.
